SUMMARY

Synopsis of Bill

Senate Concurrent Resolution 1 seeks to adopt a legislative Joint Rule which would place limit on the maximum number of bills introduced by any one legislator.

Senate Concurrent Resolution 1 seeks to adopt a new legislative Joint Rule entitled, "Limitation on Number of Bills Introduced by a Legislator". The new Rule allows for the introduction of no more than fifteen (15) bills by any one member during the session. Exclusions to the rule are as follows: two (2) bills endorsed by an interim legislative committee, and any bills introduced at the request of the governor or state agency. The new rule also allows for suspension of the rule through a two-thirds majority vote in that house, and allows for any legislator to allocate any part of their allotment to any other member of the same house.
